

CHAPTER: V TECHNICAL ELIGIBILITY	SECTION: 1 OVERVIEW	COMAR: 07.03.03.07
--	-------------------------------	------------------------------

REQUIREMENTS

- A. Members of a TCA assistance unit must be technically and financially eligible

- B. Technical eligibility requirements are those which do not test income or assets

- C. Technical eligibility includes the following:
  - 1. Age
  - 2. Citizenship
  - 3. Residence
  - 4. Living with a relative
  - 5. Social Security Numbers
  - 6. Suitability of home
  - 7. Strikers
  - 8. Primary Prevention Initiative requirements
  - 9. Child Support Enforcement Cooperation
  - 10. DEAP/TCA – a state-funded program for families with a disabled member

- D. A Section of this Chapter explains each of these requirements

- E. When not met, technical requirements affect:
  - 1. The individual only, or
  - 2. The entire assistance unit, and
    - The individual or assistance unit is ineligible

- F. Generally, test technical eligibility before financial eligibility because that determines:
1. If anyone is technically eligible
  2. Who is in the assistance unit
  3. How to count income and assets

OTHER TECHNICAL FACTORS OF ELIGIBILITY

- A. Two other technical requirements have separate chapters:
1. Work and Education Requirements
  2. Time Limits
- B. Failure to meet these technical requirements also may affect the assistance unit or only the individual
- C. Details are in the designated chapters
